EMPLOYEE OF THE QUARTER

Pictured with KyuJung Whang are Chuck Hunsinger and Vincent Kotmel

April 2015
Chuck Hunsinger is always professional and friendly, and his customers can count on the job being done right. Chuck calls to let the customer know when he is scheduled to complete their job. He finishes it as promised and on time, and he will let them know if there are any interruptions or impacts to their timeline. He keeps them up-to-date and very informed. Chuck is one of the best examples of super customer service between IPP and building coordinators. He has a reputation for being polite when working in an office or classroom. He always wears a smile and has cheerful things to say; he is always professional. If he doesn't immediately know exactly how something is to be done, he will say so and check back in with an answer shortly thereafter with a full overview of what the job will entail.

Congratulations Chuck!
